

MCG Partners is awarded “Entrepreneur of the Year”

May 19, 2009 – From a field of nine nominated firms, MCG Partners is awarded ‘Entrepreneur of the Year’ by the Metro South Chamber of Commerce. “We are very excited and honored to receive such a special award”, said Adrienne Kravitz, Partner of MCG Partners. “It is incredibly gratifying, especially in this difficult economic climate to be recognized. We are very fortunate to have such talented and dedicated people, and look forward to continuing our mission, to help executives, professionals and companies be successful”, Chuck Mollor, Managing Partner of MCG Partners, states.

About MCG Partners

MCG Partners is a premier consultancy specializing in leadership, talent and organizational effectiveness. MCG Partners designs and implements executive coaching, leadership development, management training, employee selection & retention, organizational effectiveness, change management, strategy, sales training, new leader on-boarding, executive assessment, competency modeling, 360 assessment, employee engagement and survey solutions.