

January 14, 2009 - Peter Griswold Joins MCG Partners As Senior Associate.

A leader in the world of executive coaching, talent management and sales, MCG Partners expands its presence in this fast-growing arena.

MCG Partners, a premier human resource management consulting firm, announced today that Peter L. Griswold of Wellesley, MA, has joined the firm as a Senior Associate. Peter brings over 30 years of general management and leadership, strategy and sales experience ranging from business and leadership strategy alignment, to working with organizations, teams, and individuals on leader development and business impact in the US and abroad.

"In joining MCG Partners, I'll be partnering with one of the strongest teams in the coaching and talent industry, combining my passion and experience for developing leaders and businesses with their record for high impact and results-oriented solutions", said Peter. "I've already begun work with the MCG Partners team on several coaching opportunities, and I look forward to contributing to the firm's broader work across talent management, organizational effectiveness and sales."

Before joining MCG Partners, Peter was the founder of Career Strategies working with individuals in New England and across the country for over 4 years. He developed an effective and uniquely tailored program for each client, and also consulted with CEOs and senior management teams to develop and execute growth strategies and action plans. Previously, he completed 30 years with Bank Boston/Fleet where he was a Managing Director responsible for large cap retailers across the U.S. Before joining the Retail Group, he managed the Bank's Strategic Planning, Large Corporate East, and Risk Review divisions. He was a senior manager in Argentina, and General Manager in charge of the Bank's operations in Venezuela, Dominican Republic and Canada. Throughout his career, he led internal consulting teams focused on leadership, decision-making processes, diversity training and strategic thinking.

Peter received his MBA from The Wharton School, and an MA in International Relations from the University of Pennsylvania. He graduated from the College of Wooster in Ohio. Peter is training for his 15th consecutive Boston Marathon in April 2009 to raise funds for the American Liver Foundation

"We are excited that Peter has chosen to join us," said Chuck Mollor, MCG Partners' Managing Partner. "His experience and skills as a leader, consultant, and coach will be invaluable to us as our coaching, leadership development, talent management and sales work grows."
