Names Chuck Mollor Chair of Board of Directors

BOSTON, MA, August 3, 2009 – The Arts & Business Council of Greater Boston (A&BC) recently named Chuck Mollor chair of the organization’s Board of Directors. The announcement was made last month at Martinis & Masterpieces, the A&BC’s annual fundraiser. Mollor previously served as a member of the Board of Directors and transitioned to Chair of the Board on July 1.

“Chuck has been a valued member of our Board of Directors, and we are thrilled to see him step into the role of Chair,” said Celeste Wilson, Co-Executive Director of the A&BC. “He is a natural leader, and his knowledge, professional experience and dedication make him an excellent fit for this role.”

Chuck Mollor is the Founding and Managing Partner of MCG Partners, a firm that provides coaching, leadership development, talent management, organizational effectiveness and sales training solutions. He is also President of Career Transition Advisors, a provider of career transition, management, and outplacement services. For over 25 years he has advised executives and organizations of all sizes and from all areas of industry.

“This is an exciting time for us to continue to demonstrate the tremendous value we provide to artists, artistic organizations, our communities, business professionals and industry,” said Mollor. “Our legal services, board training & placement, consulting and educational programs have a significant impact to the growth of professionals, organizations and communities, and to the economy. It is a privilege to work with such talented and committed people looking to make a difference.”
