

The Leadership Workshop For Today's Times – Engaging Employees To Drive Results

September 24, 2009 – This internationally recognized and certified two-day workshop will be held at the Babson Executive Conference Center in Wellesley, MA on December 8th and 9th. Over a comprehensive and intensive two days, discover how to tap into your ability to engage and transform your organization. As companies begin to recover from the recession, it is critical that today's leaders understand their role in engaging and/or re-engaging their employees to drive high performance. "Employee Engagement is not a program, it's how you run your organization, it's a culture. Attendees will take away practical tools and proven best practices to help their business increase engagement levels - vital to achieving superior results." states Bob Kelleher and Chuck Mollor.
